On October 27, 2015, Sirna Kyles ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a right shoulder injury as a result of a tetanus vaccine she received on April 26, 2013. On September 20, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' joint stipulation. (ECF No. 31).

On November 8, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 35). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $16,711.40, and attorneys' costs in the amount of $1,634.28³, for a total amount of $18,345.68. Id. at 1-3. In compliance with General Order #9, petitioner filed a signed statement stating she incurred no out-of-pocket expenses in pursuing this claim. Respondent did not file a response to petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

The undersigned has reviewed petitioner's motion and the associated billing records and invoices submitted with petitioner's request. In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request and the lack of a response from respondent, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $18,345.68⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Anne Carrion Toale.⁵

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁶
